□ 1912

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the concurrent resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. KILPATRICK. Madam Speaker, due to official business in my District, I was unable to record my votes scheduled for June 17, 2002. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on the following rollcall votes: On Approving the Journal (rollcall No. 230); H. Con. Res. 415, Recognizing National Homeownership Month (rollcall No. 231); and H. Con. Res. 340, Supporting the Goals and Ideals of Menigitis Awareness Month (rollcall No. 232).

WAIVING REQUIREMENT OF CLAUSE 2(c)(1) OF RULE XII ON A BILL INCLUDING A PROPOSAL TO PROVIDE A PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFIT PLAN

Mrs. MYRICK. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the requirement of clause 2(c)(1) of rule XII not apply to a bill that includes a proposal to provide a prescription drug benefit plan.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from North Carolina?
There was no objection.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 3686

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that my name be removed as a cosponsor of H.R. 3686.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Illinois?

There was no objection.

2002 WORLD CUP

(Mr. WALSH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WALSH. Madam Speaker, at the 2002 World Cup in Korea, what began as a singular and stunning event, the U.S. Men's team victory over Portugal, has become prologue for its current run into the quarter finals. No American men's national team has ever reached this point nor achieved such success.

Last night, our guys convincingly defeated their arch rival and fellow North Americans, Mexico, 2-0. Mexico also had a remarkable run through group play, emerging undefeated, that is until last night.

Coach Arena, once again, put a team on the field that played with conviction and with class. While Mexico dominated possession, our team was opportunistic scoring on all its best chances. Goalkeeper Brad Friedel was once again outstanding, as was overall team defense.

Next up, Friday morning, 7:30 a.m. Eastern Standard Time, mighty Germany, a team that is, again, one of the favorites. France, Argentina, Portugal, and now Mexico have gone home and our team is still playing. Can Germany be next? Join a billion other people for breakfast in Korea. Support our guys Friday morning.

CONGRATULATIONS TO U.S. SOCCER TEAM

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Madam Speaker, as a less-than-proficient soccer player, and probably a less-than-proficient soccer fan, let me also add my accolades to the United States soccer team. There are millions of soccer players in the United States, Little Leaguers, and large soccer clubs. Let us applaud our U.S. soccer team for its good sportsmanship and its outstanding accomplishment of reaching the quarter finals.

I hope all Members recognize that sometimes it is lonely to play far, far
